

Guidelines Regarding the Official AuBEX Account on X (the Social Media Service Formerly Known as Twitter)

AuBEX Corporation (hereinafter the "Company") has formulated guidelines regarding its operation of its X (formerly Twitter) account, AuBEX P.R (hereinafter the "Official AuBEX Social Media Account"). Please agree to the provisions of these guidelines when using the content posted by the Official AuBEX Social Media Account.

1. Account operation

The purpose of the Official AuBEX Social Media Account is to post a range of content including information about the Company's activities, business operations, initiatives, events and other matters to increase users' understanding of the Company. The Official AuBEX Social Media Account may cease operations or be deleted without prior notice.

The intent of the Official AuBEX Social Media Account is not to respond to all of the comments it receives.

3. Disclaimers

- (1) The Company will not guarantee the accuracy, integrity or usability of any information posted by the Official AuBEX Social Media Account.
- (2) The Company will accept no liability for any user's reply to the Official AuBEX Social Media Account, repost of a post by the Official AuBEX Social Media Account or comment or other matter connected to the Official AuBEX Social Media Account made by users.
- (3) The Company will accept no liability for damages incurred by any user or third party arising out of any dispute between users or between a user and a third party in association with the Official AuBEX Social Media Account.
- (4) Apart from the matters stated in (1) to (3) above, the Company will accept no liability for any dispute or conflict between users or between any user and any third party due to any matter related to the Official AuBEX Social Media Account.
- (5) Copyrights and other rights to comments and other posts are owned by the users who have posted them. When they post any comment as a reply to the Official AuBEX Social Media Account, they will be deemed to have granted the Company a worldwide non-exclusive license to reproduce, process, translate, extract, publish or otherwise use all or part of the content they have posted without their prior consent or paying compensation to them and they have agreed not to exercise their copyrights or other rights related to the content against the Company.
- (6) When acquiring personal information from any user, the Company will properly handle it in accordance with its Basic Policy on Specific Personal Information.
- (7) The Official AuBEX Social Media Account is operated on the systems of X Corp., formerly Twitter, Inc. The Company is unable to answer any question regarding operating status of X (formerly Twitter)'s systems, the website of X Corp. (formerly Twitter, Inc.), the functions or methods of using any software or application provided by X (formerly Twitter) or any third party, or any other technical question.
- (8) The Company may change these guidelines without prior notice.

4. Prohibitions

Users are asked to note that their accounts may be blocked or unfollowed without prior notice if any of the items below are applicable regarding their conduct.

- (1) Any conduct that violates or may violate any law, regulation or other rule
- (2) Any conduct that identifies, discloses or divulges the personal information of any other user or any third party or otherwise violates their privacy
- (3) Any political or religious activity or any similar conduct
- (4) Any conduct that infringes copyrights or any other intellectual property rights of the Company, any other user or any third party
- (5) Any advertising, solicitation, sales or other profit-making activities through or in association with the Official AuBEX Social Media Account
- (6) Any conduct slandering, libeling, or damaging the honor or credibility of the Company, any other user or other third party
- (7) Any conduct that violates the public order or morals or the provision of any information against the public order or morals
- (8) Any conduct that spreads any false or inaccurate information, or that spreads or promotes rumors
- (9) Any conduct pretending to be any other user or any third party
- (10) Any posting of malware or the like
- (11) Any conduct that damages the Company, any other user or any third party
- (12) Any falsification of information provided via the Official AuBEX Social Media Account
- (13) Any conduct that disturbs the operations of the Official AuBEX Social Media Account
- (14) Any posting of any other information that the Company deems inappropriate or any links or other data that includes such information

Inquiries

To submit inquiries or comments to the Company about the Company or its products, please use the Contact us webpage on the Company's website.